The fair market value used in the rebate calculation on Form GST191 must be the value of the entire property (both land and building), not simply of the major addition or substantial renovation.

Enter the fair market value at the time of substantial completion of both land and building:

How did you determine this fair market value?

---

---

---

---

---

If you have built a new house, what are its total dimensions in square metres?

You are not eligible to claim a new housing rebate for a major addition unless you also substantially renovate your existing house and the work is so extensive that your entire completed home is viewed as a newly built house. For more information, see Guide RC4028.

Is your claim for a substantial renovation or major addition?  Yes  No

If yes, describe the substantial renovation or major addition:

---

---

---

Give the dimensions in square metres of the substantial renovation or major addition: _____

Give the total dimensions in square metres of the house (including the substantial renovation or major addition): _____

Part C – Construction details

In the following charts, for each vendor, list the total of all the construction invoices for these qualifying goods and services, whether or not the GST/HST was charged. Only invoices in the name of the claimant or co-owners qualify for the rebate. You may record all the invoices from the same vendor on one line (record the date of the earliest invoice in the column "Invoice date"). If a vendor did not charge you the GST/HST, attach a copy of the invoice to the worksheet. Photocopies are accepted. Keep all your invoices for six years in case we ask to see them.

Enter the vendor's name, Business number (GST/HST number), and the GST/HST paid. Do not include estimates or quotes. Use pages 4, 5, 6, and 7 to record the GST paid. Use pages 8, 9, 10, and 11 to record the HST paid. Follow the instructions on page 12, and enter the amounts onto page 1 of Form GST191, GST/HST New Housing Rebate Application for Owner-Built Houses. Photocopy and attach additional worksheets as required. You can use a facsimile of the following chart (for example, a computer-generated printout). However, make sure that it follows the same format as the one set out below. Fill out the chart using the example in row 1 below as a guide.

Note
Use a tick mark to show whether the invoice is for labour only (in column L), materials only (in column M), or for both labour and materials tick both columns (columns L and M).

Non-qualifying items: Certain items do not qualify for the new housing rebate. For example, no claim can be made for the purchase or installation of any of the following:

- free-standing appliances or furniture
- power tools used to build the house
- any kind of draperies or blinds
- inherited land
- artwork or home furnishings that are not fixtures
- pesticides, weed spraying
- a television, DVD player, or sound system
- electricity and heating bills, moving expenses
- area rugs, linens
